A Message From University President Dr. Tony Frank

Welcome to Colorado State University!

Colorado State University is committed to student success. From their first Preview orientation to graduation and beyond, we want all our students to be well-prepared academically and personally for whatever challenges and opportunities the future holds.

We can't run a successful, winning athletics program without a strong commitment to the success of our student-athletes. Earning a CSU degree is our ultimate goal for each student-athlete at CSU, and Ram fans can be proud that our players continue to graduate and succeed at a higher rate even than the general student body. In fact, our Ram athletes have gone on to become doctors, lawyers, educators, business professionals, public servants, parents, community leaders, and yes, even professional athletes. Their energy and experience, combined with a solid education, positions them to be champions no matter where the future leads.

But all students can encounter obstacles on the road to earning a diploma—obstacles often related to finances, indecision, desire for a greater sense of community, need for academic support, and sometimes lack of personal motivation. While student-athletes encounter many of these same obstacles, they also serve as highly visible role models and strive for winning records. As with all our students, CSU is dedicated to providing the resources and programs they need to achieve their full potential, with state-of-the-art training facilities, academic support, service-learning opportunities, and focused study environments.

The life of a student-athlete is formed around hard work, self-discipline, teamwork, and a passion for achievement. That spirit—matched with strong academic support systems and high expectations—is a winning formula for Colorado State. We're proud to celebrate another great year in Rams sports and to recognize the students and fans who make it all possible.

Go Rams!

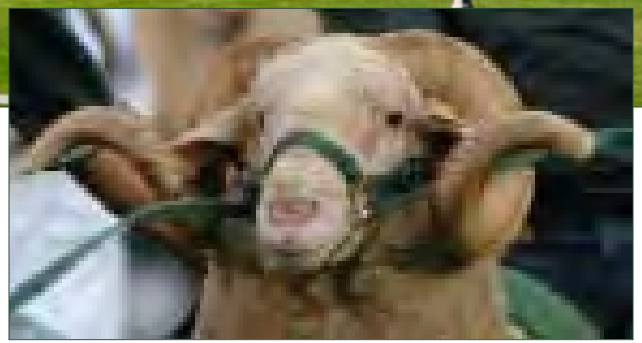
The Board of Governors of the Colorado State University System represents the people of Colorado, assuring effective management, accountability, and responsible leadership of all the CSU System campuses – Fort Collins, Pueblo and the new online Global Campus.

Board members come from across the state and from many fields — business, public service, agriculture — and share a strong commitment to excellence, innovation, and student success.

The Board of Governors sets a standard of excellence for all the campuses that carry the Colorado State name, through the establishment of a bold vision, mission, and values coupled with ambitious stretch goals for each campus, and strongly supports Colorado State athletics programs as a source of pride for students, alumni, and the State of Colorado.

The Board of Governors and the CSU System work to further the roles of its three universities to be integral contributors to the economic development of the state. Work force education, research funding and new business and product development are some of the areas where the institutions are excelling.

The University at a Glance



Colorado State University is transforming lives, solving problems, supporting economic vitality and targeting our world's greatest challenges. Committed to the land-grand heritage of education, research and outreach, Colorado State sets the standard as a 21st-century research university characterized by a global reach, scholarly excellence and an immediate impact on the world. And as a land-grand university, we're particularly committed to creating access and opportunity for people in Colorado and around the world who can benefit from our special brand of hands-on, engaged learning.

Challenging academic programs and world-changing research are hallmarks of Colorado State, and it is our special commitment to service, outreach and transforming our world through innovation that sets this university apart from other institutions. That commitment is reflected in our classrooms, in the world of our faculty around the world and in our groundbreaking commitment to move research breakthroughs rapidly from the laboratory to the marketplace.

Even more important, it is reflect in the quality of our students and graduates, who embody the university's mission and go on from CSU to make a significant impact on our world.

With more than 150 programs of study and 78 undergraduate degree programs offered in eight colleges and the graduate school, and a faculty-to-student ration of 17:1, students have access to a wealth of educational possibilities at Colorado State. Along with outstanding programs in the liberal and performing arts, humanities and social sciences, Colorado State offers some of the top professional programs in the country in construction management, occupational therapy, psychology, communications and agriculture.

Colorado State is also making investments in new facilities--$27 million has been committed for building a new indoor practice facility and a new academic and training center dedicated to student-athletes. New residence halls, a parking garage and both new and renovated academic buildings are just a few of the projects under construction across campus.

We invite you to learn more about Colorado State, a university with vision, character and a commitment to excellence.

World-Class Academics

Colorado State University takes very seriously its role in educating student-athletes. Excellence is expected on the field and in the classroom.

The most recent NCAA academic statistics reveal that Colorado State leads the Mountain West Conference in graduation rate for student-athletes at 66 percent – well ahead of the conference's overall student-athlete graduation rate of 57 percent. CSU also had six volleyball players named to the conference all-academic team in 2010.

Colorado State, however, is not resting on its reputation for graduating its student-athletes. The state-of-the-art Anderson Academic Center, which will greatly enhance the academic facilities available for student-athletes, opened in August 2009.

While the athletic department takes its role in the educational process very seriously, Colorado State's mission to provide a world-class education is at the core of academic success. U.S. News and World Report ranked Colorado State in its top tier in its annual "America's Best Colleges" report. The university offers 79 majors and 27 minors, and many of its programs are ranked among the best in the country.

Colorado State continues to push forward in its mission to provide the best possible education. Construction recently was completed on the state-of-the-art University Center for the Arts and Computer Science buildings, along with the indoor practice facility, academic and training center, and the Rockwell Hall expansion at the College of Business.

- CSU's Veterinary Medicine program ranks second in the country and is the national leader in federal research dollars.
- BusinessWeek ranked CSU's undergraduate College of Business program 67th (up from 73rd in 2008). The program ranks 30th among all public schools and 14th among all colleges and universities in the West and Southwest. The marketing and business law programs were ranked in the nation's Top 10 by the magazine.
- In December 2008, CSU conferred its 150,000th bachelor's degree and 200,000th overall degree.
- According to NCAA statistics, CSU's graduation rate for student-athletes is higher than the graduation rate for the overall student body.

Fort Collins Facts

- No. 1 place to live in the United States (Money magazine, August 2006).
- No. 1 Best Place to Live and Work for Young Professionals (pop. 100,000-200,000), Next Generation Consulting, March 2009.
- No. 2 in Forbes magazine's best United States cities for business and careers (March 2009); Denver ranked 14th and Boulder was 20th among five Colorado locations in the publication's top 40.
- One of the Top 20 Places to Thrive (Best Boomer Towns, February 2009).
- Ranked 10th-best educated city in America (Forbes magazine, November 2008).
- One of the Best Places to Raise Your Kids (BusinessWeek, November 2008).
- Gold level Bicycle Friendly Community (League of American Bicyclists, September 2008).

One of Colorado's most vibrant cities, Fort Collins is the best place in the country to live, work and play. Located on the northern Front Range of the majestic Rocky Mountains, the city is within an hour's drive of Denver, the nation's 25th-largest metro area.

This city of 137,200 residents basks in 300 days of sunshine per year — more than San Diego and Florida — and includes the historic Old Town district with its restaurants, shops, and entertainment, all within walking distance of Colorado State University's campus.

Since its founding as a military fort in 1864, Fort Collins has anchored northern Colorado's rich heritage of academic, business and recreational pursuits. Hiking, mountain biking, kayaking, river rafting and rock climbing are just a few popular outdoor pursuits for students and residents.

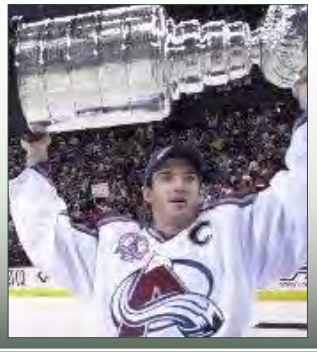
The city maintains more than 600 acres of parks, 5,000 acres of natural areas, 20 miles of off-street trails for hiking and biking, and three golf courses. The Lincoln Center and the University Center for the Arts, anchored in Fort Collins, are northern Colorado's cultural arts centers.

The Mile High City

The Denver Metro Area, with a population of 2.4 million, is less than an hour's drive from Fort Collins. A major-league metropolis, named by the Sporting News the best sports city in the United States, Denver is home to three teams that have competed for their respective world championships in the past 12 years — the Super Bowl XXXII and XXXIII champion Denver Broncos, the 1996 and 2001 Stanley Cup champion Colorado Avalanche, and the 2007 National League champion Colorado Rockies, who lost the World Series that season to the Boston Red Sox. The Denver Nuggets, meanwhile, have mad the playoffs in XX consecutive seasons, including a trip to the 2009 Western Conference finals against the evential champion Los Angeles Lakers.

Sports fans in Colorado are among the most passionate in the nation, and for good reason — their teams are winners.

Denver has all the features of any big city, including great shopping and nightlife on the 16th Street Mall (Denver Pavilions, below left), a one-of-a-kind concert venue in Red Rocks Amphitheatre (below, second from right), an adrenaline-inducing amusement park in Elitch Gardens, and the world's 10th-busiest airport, Denver International. Nicknamed the Mile High City because it is one mile above sea level, downtown Denver is home to the Colorado state capitol building, the 13th step of which is exactly one mile in elevation.



New Academic & Training Center

Cost: $7 million
Size: 16,000 sqauare feet,
Location: Southeast of the McGraw Athletic Center

Features:

- Training portion includes a state-of-the-art weight room, strength and conditioning offices, a nutrition center and restrooms.
- Academic center features five private tutorial rooms and large study areas
- Includes a computer lab with 30 workstations, more workspace and offices for CSU's academic staff.

In 1998, Colorado State enhanced its weight room and built an academic center as part of the McGraw Athletic Center project, but these facilities no longer met the needs of its expanded student-athlete base, nor did they allow the Rams to compete for top-quality recruits.

Because of the heavy time constraints placed on CSU student-athletes through practice, travel, strength and conditioning, and community service, a quality learning environment was essential for the university's student-athletes to achieve the high standards of academic success expected of them.

The Academic and Training Center is the latest centerpiece for CSU's athletic program and supports its mission to recruit, educate, develop, and graduate Rams student-athletes within an environment that prusues excellence, values integrity and ethical conduct, promotes respect for all individuals, teaches sportsmanship, entertains our constituents and emphasizes championship performance.

The McGraw Athletic Center (right), which was built in 1998 and houses the CSU athletic department, is now accompanied by a pair of new, state-of-the-art facilities: the Academic & Training Center (top) and the Indoor Practice Facility (opposite). Both facilites were shown off at the grand opening celebration on Sept. 18, 2009.

New Indoor Practice Facility

Every CSU program benefits from the Rams' new facilities. The Indoor Practice Facility is used by all of the Rams' sports teams, whether they are in season or involved in offseason conditioning.

Cost: $13 million
Size: 66,267 square feet, including 48,125 dedicated to the football portion and 8,827 to the basketball and volleyball areas
Height: 65 feet at its tallest point
Location: East of Moby Pool and north of the Student Recreation Center

Features:

- Gymnasium easily encloses a regulation basketball court and two half courts.
- Volleyball configuratioan can accommodate two full-length courts.
- Contains a 70-yard synthetic-turf football field (including one end zone).
- Features a four-lane, 70-meter track and a unique shoe-changing room adjacent to the football field.
- Has flexibility to allow the softball team to set up batting cages on the football field.
- Will provide shelter for any student-athlete in each of the Rams' 16 varsity sports.
- Includes training room, equipment storage, lobby and trophy display case, and restrooms.
- Uses an innovative air circulation system.

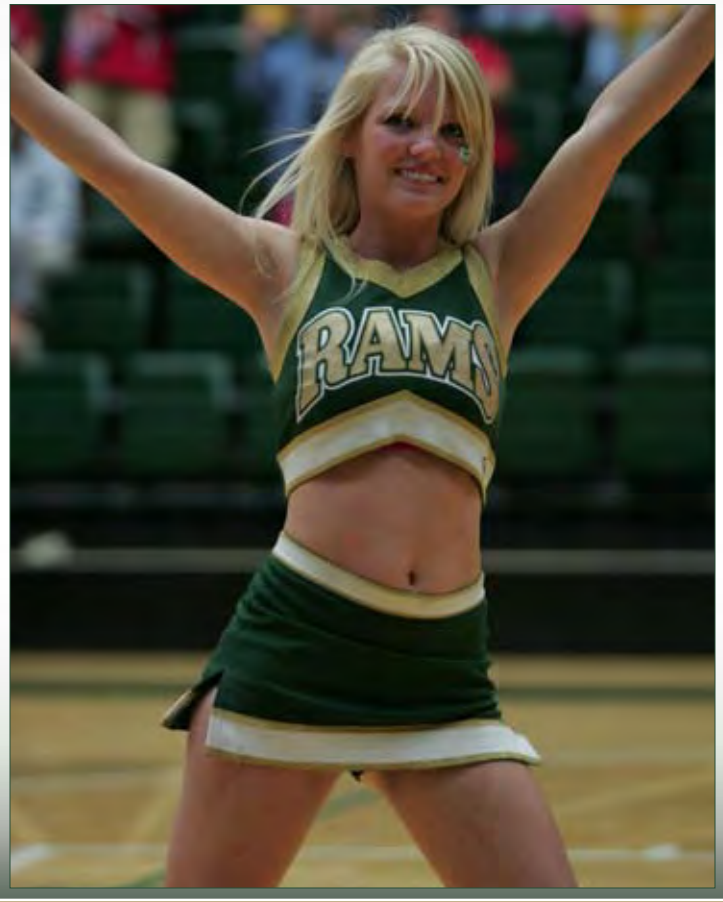
Home-Court Advantage

Moby Arena is one of the most distinctive and effective homecourt playing facilities in the nation. Colorado State boasted a 15-2 mark at Moby Arena in 2010.

Since Tom Hilbert's arrival in Fort Collins in 1997, the Rams have hosted 34 nationally ranked opponents, coming away with victories in 23 of those contests. CSU's NCAA tournament victory in 2009 over No. 6 Washington (above) marked the Rams' fifth consective home victory over a ranked opponent, dating back to a 3-0 victory over No. 13 Ohio State on Aug. 30, 2007. During that stretch, the Rams also hosted and beat opponents from Florida (No. 8 on Sept. 13, 2008), BYU (No. 24 on Sept. 20, 2008), Arizona (No. 25 on Oct. 4, 2008), and Washington (No. 6 on Dec. 4, 2009). Nebraska, preseason No. 5, comes to Moby Arena in 2011.

Match Day Experience

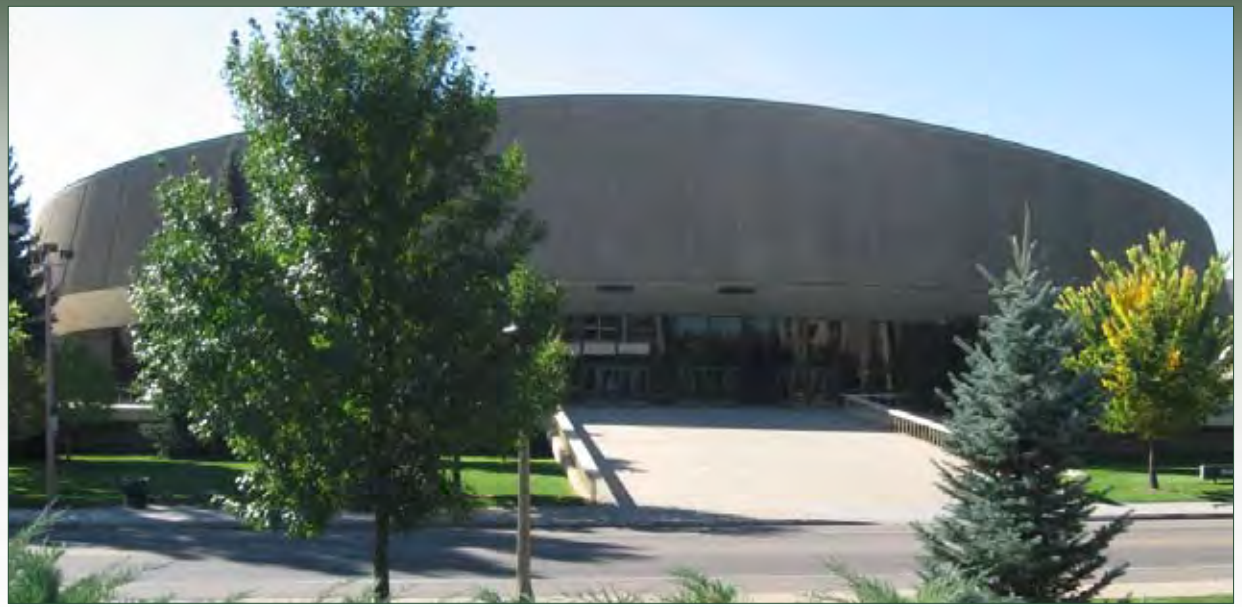


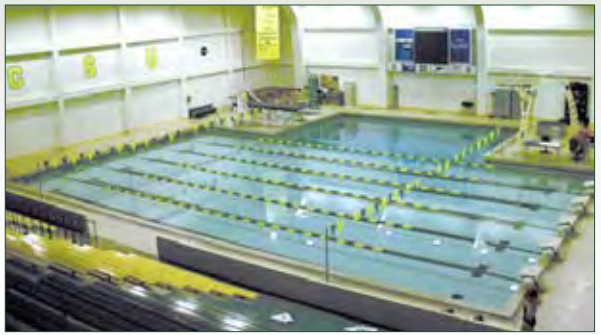
Moby Madness

Moby Arena has become known nationally as one of the toughest places to play, thanks to the dedicated fans that flock to Colorado State University vollleyball matches night in and night out.

The "Green Machine" student section and the throngs of loyal season-ticket holders create an atmosphere at Rams volleyball matches that is matched by very few programs around the country. In 2010, CSU ranked No. 13 nationally in attendance.

Colorado State Home Venues





Homes of the Rams

Colorado State University student-athletes in all sports enjoy some of the finest facilities in the country, including (clockwise from left) Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium, football; Moby Arena, men's and women's basketball and volleyball; University Tennis Complex, tennis; Moby Pool, swimming & diving and water polo; Harmony Club, men's and women's golf; Jack Christiansen Track, outdoor track & field; South College Gym, indoor track & field; Ram Field, softball.

Volleyball Facilities

Volleyball Team Room

Bigger, Faster, Stronger

Colorado State features some of the best athletic facilities in the Mountain West. Since its construction in 1999, the McGraw Athletic Center and the additions to Moby Arena have provided Colorado State student-athletes the tools to excel. In 2009, the Rams unveiled two more state-of-the-art facilities, including an Academic and Weight Training Center, and an Indoor Practice Facility that accommodates two full-size volleyball courts

Media Exposure

Rams on Television

Launched on Sept. 1, 2006, The Mtn. - MountainWest Sports Network - was the first network dedicated to a collegiate athletic conference. The Mtn. provides sports fans blanket coverage of MW athletics across multiple sports. The network featured more MW games on television than ever before during the 2009-10 academic year and is slated to bring more live coverage to fans during the 2011 volleyball season.

In addition to The Mtn.'s in-depth coverage and wide array of original programming, fans can also catch many Mountain West sporting events on either CBS College Sports or Versus. The trio of networks gives CSU fans all over the country unprecedented access to all things Rams!

The Rams continue to be one of the most televised teams in the Mountain West, and will appear on television at least five times this season, including matches vs. Northern Colorado (CET - Sept. 10; tape delay), at San Diego State (CBS College Sports - Oct. 2), vs. New Mexico (The Mtn. - Oct. 13), at TCU (The Mtn. - Nov. 10; tape delay) and each game of the MW tournament (The Mtn. - Nov. 18-19; CBS College Sports - Nov. 20).

Live coverage isn't limited to the Colorado State Sports Network's normal coverage area. Ram fans worldwide can listen to the action live streaming on CSURams.com.

Fans can also get an inside look into Colorado State University and Rams volleyball as CSU continually expands its coverage through the use of new media. By logging onto RamVolleyball.ColoState.edu, fans can instantly access exclusive video content, blogs and more. In addition, CSU volleyball, and Head Coach Tom Hilbert, are both on Twitter and Facebook, giving fans unprecedented access to what is going on inside the program.

Head Coach Tom Hilbert

TOM HILBERT

OKLAHOMA (1984)
15TH SEASON AT CSU (358-90), 23ND SEASON OVERALL (532-162)

The Colorado State women's volleyball program has become synonymous with consistent winning under the guidance and tutelage of Head Coach Tom Hilbert, who enters his 15th season with the Rams and his 23rd overall as a collegiate coach in 2011.

With seven Mountain West Coach of the Year awards to his credit, in the league's 12-year existence, it is clear why Hilbert's program has risen to the top of the MW and become a stalwart on the national stage as a perennial top-25 team.

Under Hilbert, who was inducted in the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame as the Hall of Honor recipient in 2006, the Rams have developed into one of the top programs in the nation, qualifying for the NCAA tournament 16 consecutive years. The streak is a school record for consecutive postseason appearances in any sport. The stretch also includes five Sweet 16 appearances in Hilbert's 14 seasons.

A deeper look inside Hilbert's coaching record reveals some remarkable achievements. The head coach has amassed a 154-26 record in Mountain West play and has led the Rams to eight regular-season conference titles and four conference tournament championships.
He ranks 11th among active Division I head coaches in winning percentage (.767), and in 2010, Hilbert became the winningest coach in CSU history, in any sport, with his 353rd win Nov. 4 vs. UNLV. The win surpassed former men's basketball coach Jim Williams' mark of

Hilbert's Coaching Philosophy

Like life in general, athletic development is a growth process, not a means to an end. To get the most out of life one should continuously set and re-evaluate performance goals in all areas; athletics, academics, career, etc. Through athletics young people learn how to set long- and short-term goals and build self-esteem through achievement of those goals.

I believe in a democratic style of team management. Teams should set their own goals, make their own rules and make major team decisions. Peer influence is much more effective than authoritarian influence. When an athlete takes part in successful team building, it is a very rewarding and educational experience.

In practice and in competition volleyball is a game of emotion and intensity so it is important to train with emotion and intensity. We combine high-repetition teaching drills with intense competitive game drills. Colorado State players learn to embrace competition and mental toughness. When the game is on the line, I want players who have looked pressure in the eyes and conquered it.

College coaches have an awesome responsibility in guiding young people through such an important segment of life. It is a time of emotional, intellectual and physical growth. We must take this responsibility seriously. When an athlete leaves a program under my direction, I want her to look back on her college athletic experience as one of the most rewarding times of her life.

352 victories. In 2009, Hilbert eclipsed the 500-win mark for his career, becoming one of 26 active head coaches with 500 or more victories. At the time, Hilbert also ranked as one of just two on that list with fewer than 22 years of head coaching experience. Entering 2011, Hilbert ranks 20th on the active list for most victories, and of those in the top 20, Hilbert has done so in the fewest games. His 353rd win to become the winningest CSU coach came just more than one year after Hilbert distinguished himself as the winningest volleyball coach in CSU annals, surpassing the 300-win mark as a Ram and moving ahead of Rich Feller, who won 299 matches from 1983-96.

Hilbert has coached five players to AVCA All-America honors, and one to Volleyball Magazine All-America.

While at CSU, Hilbert has an overall record of 358-90 (.799), and is 532-162 (.767) overall in 22 seasons as a head coach. He has led his teams to 20 or more wins every season since 1992—a span of 19 straight years—with the 1999 Rams setting the school's single-season record for winning percentage after going 30-3 (.909). He has also turned CSU's home court, Moby Arena, into one of the most hostile in the nation, compiling a 200-26 (.885) all-time record in Fort Collins, in addition to bringing in attendance figures that set a MW single-match record in 2010 and continuously rank in the top 15 nationally.

Before coming to CSU, Hilbert led Idaho to the Eastern Division title in 1996 (its first season in the Big West), and in the Big Sky Conference his teams won either the regular season or the tournament championship from 1992-95.

Hilbert accumulated a 174-72 (.707) record at Idaho, and he coached the Big Sky's only All-American in Mindy Rice. Hilbert also guided Idaho to its first national ranking, and the Vandals were the first Big Sky institution to ever be nationally ranked.

Prior to Idaho, Hilbert spent five seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, from 1984-88.

A native of Norman, Okla., Hilbert earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing from OU in 1984. He also received a master's in sports and recreation management from Idaho in 1993.
Hilbert has resided in Fort Collins for 14 years and has a daughter, Myles, who will be 11 in September.

Associate Head Coach Jesse Mahoney

JESSE MAHONEY

COLORADO (1995)
SEVENTH SEASON AT COLORADO STATE

Jesse Mahoney enters his seventh season with the Rams in 2011 and his fourth as associate head coach. Mahoney serves as the recruiting coordinator in addition to working with the blocking schemes and middle blockers.

Since his arrival in Fort Collins, Mahoney has put together three recruiting classes ranked in the nation's top-25 by PrepVolleyball.com. The 2007 class was ranked 14th in the country, the 2008 squad stacked up as No. 22, and the 2010 class rated as No. 15.

Mahoney's coaching presence has also been felt on the court as he has turned CSU into one of the top blocking teams in the country. Since joining the Rams, CSU middle blockers like Dre Downs (all-conference and all-region in 2005, her first at the position), Mekana Barnes (three-time all-MW, 2007 Mountain West Player of the Year, 2007 third-team All-America), and more recently, Tessa Nelson (2009 MW Preseason Player of the Year, 2009 NCAA all-tournament team at Minneapolis Regional, two-time all-MW selection) and Megan Plourde (2009 and 2010 AVCA all-West region selection, 2009 and 2010 all-MW) have thrived under Mahoney's watch and established themselves as some of the top players in country at the position. In 2010, the Rams led the Mountain West, and ranked second in the nation, in blocks per game (3.13). Plourde had the second-highest blocks-per-set average in the nation (1.62), led by a CSU record-breaking performance of 19 blocks in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

Since 2005, the Rams have ranked among the nation's top-25 blocking teams five times, ranking fourth in 2008, fifth in 2007, ninth in 2005, 22nd in 2009 and second in 2010. CSU has consistently ranked first or second in the Mountain West since Mahoney's arrival.
Mahoney came to Colorado State from Fort Hays State, where he was the head coach from 1999-2004. While at Fort Hays State, Mahoney tallied a record of 107-82, including a mark of 56-12 in both 2003 and 2004. His Lady Tigers went 31-5 in 2004 as they posted the best record in NCAA Division II competition and finished the season ranked 11th nationally. Mahoney led Fort Hays State to its first regional tournament berth in 2003 and then led the squad to the regional finals in 2004. Fort Hays State participated in four consecutive Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) tournaments under Mahoney's guidance.

At Fort Hays State, Mahoney coached the only three All-Americans in school history, Ashley Holt, Kelly Skidmore and Amber Zoglman.

Prior to his time in Hays, he was the assistant coach at Colorado Christian in 1998, helping lead the Cougars to a tie for first place in the RMAC East Division (17-2 record).

Mahoney was the head coach of the University of Colorado men's club team for two years and was an assistant with the team the year prior to that. He also helped coach the 18-under Front Range Volleyball Club team that captured the USA Junior Rocky Mountain Region championship.

Before coaching, Mahoney spent four seasons as the starting setter on the CU men's club team. He earned all-tournament honors in 1993 after leading the team to the NIRSA collegiate club national championship.

A native of Boulder, Colo., he received a bachelor's degree in psychology from CU in 1995 and a Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Colorado School of Law in 1999. He is married to the former Gwen McEntyre, and the couple has three children: Macy James (5), Griffin Mack (4) and Declan Thomas (2).

BRI FRECH

COLORADO STATE (2006)
FOURTH SEASON AT COLORADO STATE

Former Rams standout Bri Frech enters her fourth season as an assistant coach at Colorado State in 2011. Frech joined the staff full-time after spending the 2007 season as the Rams' video and statistics coordinator.

Her duties include scouting and video analysis, as well as on-court coaching of serving, passing and defense. She plays a supporting role in recruiting, as well. Frech also handles many of the operations elements of the program.

Frech first joined the Rams as a player in 2003 after spending her freshman and sophomore years at Salt Lake City Community College. In the 2003 and 2004 seasons, Frech was a consistent starter for the Rams, earning all-Mountain West and all-tournament honors while leading her team to NCAA bids in both years and a combined 56-9 record. In Frech's senior season, the Rams were ranked as high as No. 9 nationally. Frech was a rare "six rotation" middle blocker because of her exceptional serving and passing ability.

In 2005, Frech served as a student-assistant for the Rams while completing her degree. She then played professionally in France for MVS La Rochette during the 2006 season. Her club finished second in the French league that year. Frech returned to Fort Collins in 2007 to pursue a career in coaching.

A native of Eschwege, Germany, she received a bachelor of science degree in business administration from CSU in 2005. She is married to Charlie Olmstead and resides in Fort Collins, Colo.

Curtis Oliver joins the CSU Rams volleyball staff as a volunteer assistant for the 2011 season.

He will assist in all facets of the program, while primarily serving as an on-court coach and practice player.

Growing up in Santa Barbara, Calif., Oliver competed for Santa Barbara City College before finishing his collegiate career at Johnson & Wales University in Denver, Colo. While at JWU, Oliver helped the Wildcats qualify for the NAIA national tournament each season.

Curtis graduated from JWU in 2010 with a degree in sports entertainment and event management.

Director of Athletics Paul Kowalczyk

PAUL KOWALCZYK

Director of Athletics | Sixth Year at CSU | Kent State; '80, '86

Director of Athletics Paul Kowalczyk has placed Colorado State's program on an ambitious path toward national prominence with his insightful and visionary leadership.

Kowalczyk is in his sixth year leading CSU's program, demonstrating an unmistakable commitment to the university after signing in 2010 a five-year contract extension, through 2015. From the moment he arrived on campus in 2006, he has shown a leadership style that is steady and consistent with ambitious goals clearly established.

Under his watchful eye, a foundation has been built to cultivate long-term success throughout the program. With the foundation firmly in place, Colorado State's program stands on the threshold of taking a bold step forward nationally to reach "stretch goals" established by the Board of Governors when Kowalczyk arrived.

Perhaps nothing better illustrates the progress toward prominence that CSU's program has made during Kowalczyk's tenure than the altered skyline surrounding Moby Arena and the McGraw Athletic Center, both of which serve as centerpieces of the athletics department.

During the summer of 2009, CSU opened two state-of-the-art athletics facilities that are visually prominent to any avid Rams fan upon arriving on campus. A training facility includes an indoor football practice field plus basketball and volleyball practice courts, adjacent to Moby Arena. Also, a new academic and strength and conditioning center is next to the McGraw Athletic Center.

Over the last year-plus, Kowalczyk also has stewarded significant upgrades to Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium, including a $2.5 million landscaping initiative following the 2010 season that will make the venue's grounds at the base of the Rocky Mountain foothills even more attractive. Additionally in recent years, Kowalczyk oversaw improvements to several CSU team locker rooms, and in fall 2010 spearheaded a $1 million project that furnished Moby Arena with new state-of-the-art video boards. Also in the fall of 2010, the Rams opened a $2 million tennis facility.

The two new buildings, along with upgrades to CSU's stadium, arena and McGraw Athletic Center offices, make CSU's resources among the finest in the nation.Those additions and improvements also have made CSU competitive nationally while enhancing the institution's image across a broad spectrum. The facilities represent one of Kowalczyk's primary goals when he was appointed to his position at CSU. Almost immediately upon his arrival, he worked closely with campus leaders to develop the facilities initiative.

"These buildings show that Colorado State is unmistakably serious about achieving its stretch goals," Kowalczyk said. "Combined with the recent renovations at our football stadium, this puts us where we need to be in terms of offering quality, state-of-the-art facilities for our coaches and student-athletes, those who are here now and those who are thinking about coming here."

The facilities, along with recent contracts he negotiated with Russell Athletic (apparel and uniforms), Under Armour (footwear), and a deal with the University of Colorado to keep the Rocky Mountain Showdown at Invesco Field for the long-term future, also reflect Kowalczyk's commitment to excellence throughout the program. "Average is simply not good enough," he said. "We must continually find ways to improve

Athletic Department Mission Statement

The purpose of the Colorado State University Department of Athletics is to recruit, educate, develop and graduate student-athletes within an environment that pursues excellence, values integrity and ethical conduct, promotes respect for all individuals, teaches sportsmanship, entertains our constituents and emphasizes championship performance.

every aspect of our program while meeting the needs of our student-athletes and providing resources for our coaches -- not just to compete, but to win, and do it while serving the university, the community and the region."

Soon after Kowalczyk's arrival in Fort Collins, he worked closely with the Board of Governors of the Colorado State University System and the university leadership to set in place a set of "stretch goals."

"The support of the board and campus administration, which was there every step of the way, was critical," Kowalczyk said. "We have leadership on this campus that not only recognizes the importance of investing in athletics, but also what a successful athletics department can do for the university."

Colorado State's stretch goals include:
- Achieve a No. 1 ranking in the Director's Cup, a ranking system that reflects overall program success;
- Annual Bowl Championship Series inclusion;
- NCAA men's and women's basketball tournament participation.

While the entire program under Kowalczyk's guidance has moved forward with the completion of the facilities, he readily admits there are more challenges that lie ahead.

"We will never stand still. We will continue to move forward. As a program, we will strive for excellence in every area, just as we challenge our student-athletes in competition and in the classroom.

"Our efforts will always include continually and diligently working to expand our ticket and Ram Club donor base as a means to generate additional revenue and scholarship fund support."

Colorado State's expected emergence nationally has provided followers of the program optimism and excitement.

Kowalczyk brought a wealth of experience and knowledge to Fort Collins when he was named the school's 16th Director of Athletics on April 11, 2006, after having served for six successful years in the same capacity at Southern Illinois University.

In the spring of 2008, he was named to the prestigious NCAA Division I Leadership Council, an advisory body to the Division I Board of Directors. The council identifies issues important to the future of Division I and offers its expertise in defining appropriate action items.

Reappointed in June 2010, his current term expires in 2014. Kowalczyk also remains involved in NCAA, NACDA and MW activities.

During his tenure at SIU, he led the Salukis' emergence into a successful, nationally renowned athletics program, including 15 conference championships in seven sport programs.

Before his tenures at CSU and SIU, he was senior administrator at Northwestern University during a time in which the Wildcats program enjoyed national success. He also served as assistant athletics director for business operations at Kansas State, business manager for athletics at Portland State, and assistant to the associate athletics director at Kent State.

"Average is simply not good enough. We must continually find ways to improve every aspect of our program while meeting the needs of our student-athletes and providing resources for our coaches — not just to compete, but to win, and do it while serving the university, the community and the region."

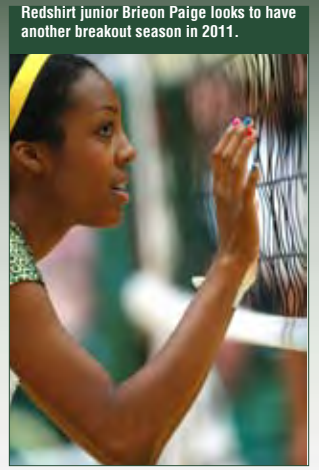
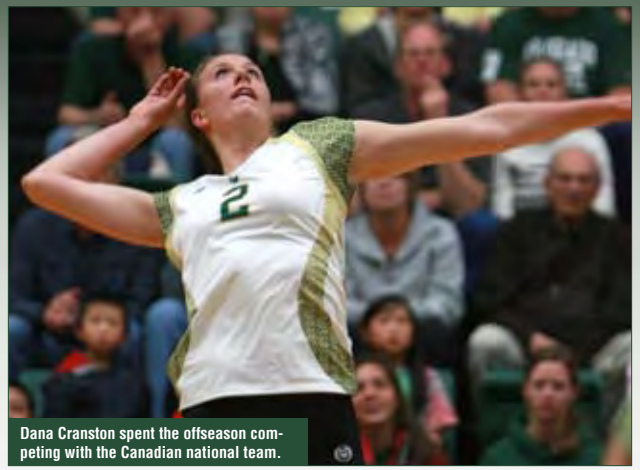
2011 Season Preview

Megan Plourde is the 2011 preseason MW Player of the Year.

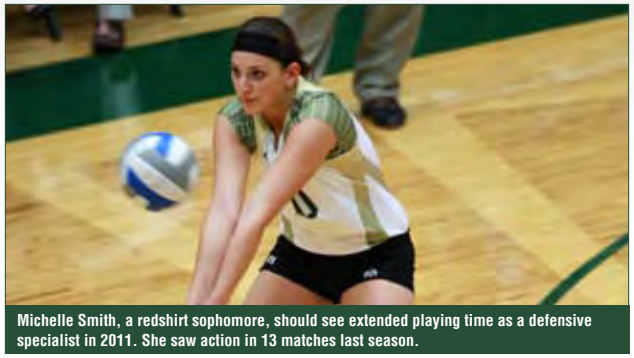


Redshirt junior Brieon Paige looks to have another breakout season in 2011.



Dana Cranston spent the offseason competing with the Canadian national team.

In 2010, the Rams ranked No. 2 nationally in blocking.



Michelle Smith, a redshirt sophomore, should see extended playing time as a defensive specialist in 2011. She saw action in 13 matches last season.

Head Coach Tom Hilbert has built Colorado State's volleyball team into a program of excellence, winning 20-plus matches and advancing to the NCAA tournament in each of his 14 seasons in Fort Collins. To establish this standard of success, however, he has had to face his fair share of challenges along the way. Each time, though, Hilbert, the winningest coach in school history, has found a way to remain successful.

Entering 2011, Hilbert will face another challenge: patience.

"The main thing we need to have this year is patience," he said. "This year's team will be one that grows a lot from August to November. We have new players in five of the seven positions and that means there will be a learning curve."

The Rams lost five players from last year's squad that went 26-5 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament, including the 2010-11 Mountain West Female Athlete of the Year, Danielle Minch. With the inexperience, fans can expect several players getting time at new positions.

Senior Katelyn Steffan and junior Dana Cranston will each play outside hitter, a change for both players, who have seen the bulk of their playing time at opposite hitter. Redshirt freshman Kelsey Snider is also expected to get time at the position, while redshirt freshman Marlee Reynolds and true freshman Kaila Thomas are in the mix as well. Thomas enters her collegiate career as a 2010 PrepVolleyball.com Senior Ace, a list of the country's top 50 high-school seniors.

At setter, the Rams will look to replace Evan Sanders with two more freshmen.

"Both Deedra Foss and Katie Rutherford are potential starters," Hilbert said. "Deedra sets the pin hitters better right now, but Katie sets the middles better."

The Rams enter 2011 with Steffan as the lone senior on the roster, and while Hilbert sees his veteran player as a leader, he doesn't expect her to overload her responsibilities.

"Kate has played primarily opposite for us and she has improved in her numbers every year," he said. "She will likely switch to Outside Hitter 1 this season, and that position requires consistency and competitiveness night in and night out. It will be a great challenge for her, but she knows we believe in her.

"What's important is that she has to accept that she doesn't have to be a superstar; she just has to be good enough to get the job done. Hitting outside is like a running back in football; it's a grind and sometimes it's just a matter of survival until you have a chance to make a great play."

Aside from Steffan, Hilbert has seen a lot of leadership in Cranston, a native of British Columbia who competed with the Canadian National Team over the summer.

Like it always has, Colorado State assembled one of the toughest schedules in the nation. In 2011, the Rams will play six teams that competed in last year's NCAA tournament. And they waste no time getting into the heat of it, playing their first four matches on the road, including two of last year's tournament teams in Arkansas and Oklahoma.

The following weekend, the Rams return to Moby Arena, where they are an immaculate 154-26 under Hilbert's tutelage. The competition doesn't get any easier, though, facing Nebraska and Albany, two more teams that finished last year in the postseason.

"Our home opener has been one of the top matches of the year for the last several seasons," Hilbert said, looking ahead to the Cornhuskers, "and this one probably tops them all. The greatest thing is that you have two programs with great support and fan bases facing each other in Moby Arena."

Nebraska is one of college volleyball's most prestigious teams, having won three national championships and reaching the Final Four 11 times in the past 25 years.

"I fully expect another attendance record and maybe a sellout," Hilbert said. "I also believe our home-court environment is one of the nation's best and will help energize us to play well against the Huskers."

With conference reconfiguration, the Rams will compete in the eight-team Mountain West in 2011, welcoming newcomer Boise State. Despite the addition and subtraction of teams, the Rams will have a bull's-eye on their back as they shoot for their third consecutive Mountain West title.

For the first time since 2007, the season will be concluded with a postseason Mountain West championship tournament, in Albuquerque, N.M., before the tournament goes away again in 2012.

"The winner of the conference tournament is the only team that is guaranteed a spot in the NCAA tournament," Hilbert said, "so for me, the key to the season this year is to play your best during that week. I see the MW tournament as the most important event of the year for us."

Hilbert foresees continued success with blocking in 2011, where the Rams finished second in the country in 2010, and is optimistic that there will be a noticeable improvement in receiving serves. He also believes that the team's middle attackers will also have plenty of success. The biggest focus, he says, will be the consistency from the outside attackers.

While the 2011 squad lost a lot of its production from the year prior, and has plenty of inexperience, tthe Rams enter the regular season ranked No. 15 in the AVCA Coaches Preseason Poll, and are the favorites to win their third consecutive Mountain West title. The preseason recognition, in large part, is due to Plourde, an American Volleyball Coaches' Association (AVCA) all-West Region team selection as a sophomore in 2010, and the 2011 MW Preseason Player of the Year. The Rams also return juniors Izzy Gaulia, a defensive specialist, and Brieon Paige, a middle blocker, and expect to see more out of redshirt sophomores Tori Brummett, Samantha Peters and Michelle Smith.

During the offseason, the Rams also added freshmen Kaitlind Bestgen, Brittany Bunch and Carlie Foust to their roster.

"We are athletic at every position, which means when we are on we can beat a lot of teams," Hilbert said. "I think we have good leadership as well. What we need to do is be patient and try to improve every day. This will help us be our best when it counts, at the end of the season."
The 2011 season may be another bump in the road for Hilbert, but no detour has ever stopped him before.

"We have had great athletes who work very hard and believe in what we are doing," Hilbert said. "We have built a foundation of excellence. That becomes a habit. The key is not taking it for granted. We are what we are not because we have right to it but because we earned it and built it by doing the right things.

"When it's all said and done, we want to win the Mountain West. That's what gives us a chance to do great things."

Head Coach Tom Hilbert will add to his program-leading 358 wins in 2011.

Senior Katelyn Steffan will play opposite hitter during her senior season.

Redshirt freshmen Deedra Foss (above, No. 18) and Katie Rutherford (below, No. 11) will both see time at setter in 2011.

Tori Brummett, a middle blocker from Redlands, Calif., is eager to return to the court after seeing action in 12 matches in 2010.

2010 Review

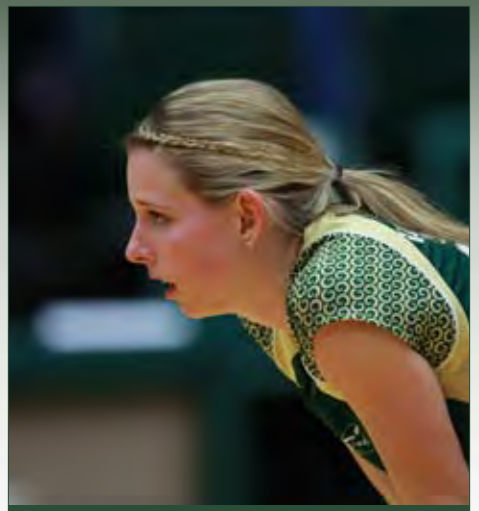
Senior OH Jacque Davisson was the Rams' vocal leader on the court, energizing the team each match. She also ranked second on the team with 301 kills.

The Rams ranked No. 13 nationally in attendance in 2010, averaging 2,180 fans, including a conference record 6,333 vs. Duke.



Audrey Hemmings set a CSU single-match record with 24 digs vs. Albany on Sept. 3. On the year, she played in all 110 sets and ranked sixth in the MW with 397 digs.

Emily Koenning served as a defensive specialist during her four years at CSU, often times coming in to serve at critical moments.

Danielle Minch finished her collegiate career as one of the most successful players in program history. In 2009 and 2010, she was back-to-back Mountain West Player of the Year, the 2010-11 Female Athlete of the Year and a two-time AVCA all-West Region first-team selection.

Returning most of its production from the 2009 squad that won the Mountain West and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16, the 2010 Colorado State volleyball team had a target on its back all season and handled the pressure nearly flawlessly en route to a second consecutive conference championship and returning to the NCAA tournament for the 16th straight year.

The season started with a bang as the Rams defeated ACC-powerhouse Duke in front of a Mountain West-record 6,333 fans.

"Every year the home opener has great energy," said Head Coach Tom Hilbert, who completed his 14th season with CSU in 2010, "but last year the crowd kept growing and growing through the first set. I looked up in the middle of the second set and told a few players, 'I think this is an attendance record.' The players love big crowds, especially student crowds. The energy is so great."

Propelled by the opening match, the Rams won their first five, and nine of their first 10. Overall, the Rams were 11-2 against non-conference foes in the regular season, with the pair of losses coming to ranked teams. Of the 11 non-conference wins, nine were three-set sweeps.

"We had a really special team that carried us," Hilbert said. "We had great leadership from our core group of seniors."

That group—made up of Jacque Davisson, Audrey Hemmings, Emily Koenning and Danielle Minch—included three four-year starters, a two-time Mountain West Player of the Year and the team's emotional and vocal leader.

"Those four players were not just normal players," Hilbert said. "You had the two-time MW MVP and Jacque Davisson who was a six-rotation outside hitter. Audrey was the libero in her senior year, so those three players accounted for over 50 percent of the ball contacts on our team. Then you had the emotional leadership of Jacque on top of all that."

Minch, who was named the 2010-11 MW Female Athlete of the Year in July, also earned her second American Volleyball Coaches' Association (AVCA) all-West Region selection.

"Danielle was the most powerful hitter in the conference," Hilbert said. "No one had the termination ability that she had. She was unstoppable at times, and it's hard to replace a player like that."

The Rams rolled through conference play, posting a 14-2 record, which resulted in CSU's second straight MW title, and eighth under Hilbert's watch.

"We did not have the consistency that we had in the previous year, but we had the ability to win the ones we needed to win," Hilbert said. "Repeating as the conference champion when you have a target on your back every night is a hard thing to do. There were high expectations and this team handled it well."

The 2010 season also featured the final contests at Provo and Salt Lake City to take on BYU and Utah, as the two teams departed from the Mountain West upon the conclusion of the season.

"Winning those two matches on the road was big because it was the last time we would make that trip so it had historical significance, but it also had a lot of significance in the conference race," Hilbert said.

CSU's triumph against UNLV on Nov. 4 was also a special moment for Hilbert and the CSU faithful, as it was Hilbert's 353rd career victory as a Ram, surpassing Jim Williams (men's basketball) as the winningest coach in CSU history.

The Rams advanced to the NCAA tournament for the 16th straight season, taking down No. 24 Cal State Fullerton in the opening round in dramatic fashion. On the brink of elimination after falling behind two sets, sophomore Megan Plourde went on a tear, setting a CSU record with 19 blocks to will the Rams to a 3-2 victory.

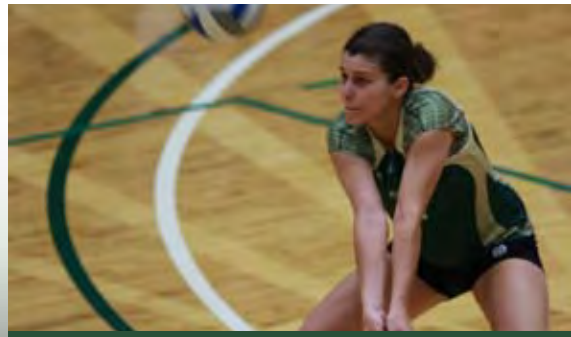
"That Fullerton match was a great memory," Hilbert said. "After losing the first two sets, I told the team that Fullerton was playing with great maturity and we had to aggressively take them out of their comfort level. We came out in Set 3 and started blocking them. Meg Plourde was incredible both offensively and defensively at that point. It changed the dynamics, giving us momentum and finally the win."

The next night, the Rams battled, but eventually fell to No. 2-seed and host Stanford.

Overall in 2010, the Rams posted a 26-5 record. Minch, Plourde and junior Evan Sanders repeated as all-Mountain West selections, with Minch and Plourde receiving AVCA All-America nominations.

The Rams held the 12th-best winning percentage in the country in 2010, and ranked No. 2 nationally in blocks per match and No. 36 in hitting percentage. Plourde led the Rams in each of those categories, ranking second nationally with 1.62 blockers per game and hitting .347 (38th nationally).

Dana Cranston spent the summer of 2011 competing with the Canadian national team.



Izzy Gaulia recorded a career high with 14 digs in the Rams' regular-season finale agains BYU on Nov. 26. She recorded double-digit dig totals five times as a sophomore.

Champions on the court

Over the years, Colorado State University athletic programs have captured multiple conference championships and Colorado State volleyball has led the way with 15 conference titles to the program's credit.

The Rams have won or shared 12 Mountain West regular-season and tournament championships in the league's 12-year existence. CSU also boasts titles from both the Western Athletic Conference and the High Country Athletic Conference.

Mountain West
2010 Champions
26-5 Overall, 14-2 MW

The Rams set a MW record with 6,333 fans for their home opener against Duke, a win that propelled the team to a 26-5 record and its second consecutive conference title. CSU advanced to its 16th straight NCAA tournament, which featured a come-from-behind win over Cal State Fullerton in the first round. Sophomore middle blocker Megan Plourdeset a program record with 19 blocks in the match, to go along with her 1.53 blocks per set on the season, which ranked second nationally. Senior Danielle Minch was named Mountain West Player of the Year for the second year in a row, and was also honored with the conference Female Athlete of the Year award.

Conference Championship Teams

Mountain West
2009 Champions
25-6 Overall, 15-1 MW

After opening the season 4-3, the CSU volleyball team hit its stride in early September, winning 19 of 21 matches to close out the regular season. The team rolled to a 15-1 mark in Mountain West action, claiming the program's seventh MW regular-season championship. Junior Danielle Minch was named MW Player of the Year, while senior Katelin Batten was tabbed the MW's top libero. Senior Tessa Nelson, sophomore Evan Sanders and freshman Megan Plourde each garnered all-MW honors. Head Coach Tom Hilbert was named MW Coach of the Year.

Mountain West
2007 Champions
23-8 Overall, 13-3 MW

The 2007 season saw the Rams earn their sixth MW regular-season championship since 2000. Junior middle blocker Mekana Barnes was named the MW Player of the Year while junior setter Ashley Fornstorm earned all-conference honors as the Setter of the Year. Tonya Mokelki and Jaime Strauss also earned all-conference honors. The Rams went a perfect 14-0 at home including a perfect in MWCplay.

Conference Championship Teams

Mountain West
2006 Tournament Champions
20-10 Overall, 11-5 MW

The Rams captured their fourth tournament title in eight years as they upset No. 9 Utah in the championship match. In dramatic fashion, the Rams topped the Utes in five games. CSU trailed 20-11 in Game 3 and faced one match point before winning the third game 34-32 and then rolling to the title. Sophomore outside hitter Jaime Strauss was anmed the MVP of the tournament.

Mountain West
2004 Co-Champions, Tournament Champions
21-9 Overall, 13-1 MW

In 2004, Colorado State won at least a share of the Mountain West regular-season title for a fifth straight season. CSU won its first five conference matches before falling to No. 18 Utah in four games in Moby. The Rams then rallied to win their final eight league matches, including a three-game sweep over the No. 17 Utes in Salt Lake in front of a national television audience (CSTV). Colorado State went on to become the first host school in league history to win the Mountain West tournament, winning its second straight automatic berth to the NCAA Championship.

Conference Championship Teams

Mountain West
2003 Champions, Tournament Champions
30-5 Overall, 14-0 MW

Colorado State became the first team in Mountain West history to go through the regular season undefeated, and then became the first team to ever win both the regular-season and tournament crowns in the same year, winning three matches at San Diego State. Nine of the 14 regular-season matches were three-game sweeps for the Rams, including six straight.

Mountain West
2002 Champions
22-10 Overall, 12-2 MW

2002 was considered by many to be a rebuilding year, but CSU again proved to be the dominant team in the league, posting a 12-2 record for its third consecutive title. The Rams won their first four matches, then fell in five games to BYU in Moby. Winning their next three matches in four games each, the Rams headed to San Diego State, where they were swept for the first time in 27 league matches -- a feat that had only happened three times in the existence of the Mountain West. CSU rebounded, however, to win its final four matches and again bring home the title.

Conference Championship Teams

Mountain West
2001 Champions
29-4 Overall, 13-1 MW

Probably the most dominant team in Mountain West history, the 2001 Rams posted a 13-1 record and won their first 11 matches -- all in three -game sweeps -- before falling in five games at Utah. They then went on to win the final three matches, again in three-game sweeps. That year, the Rams won 37 straight games, second longest in school history to the 40 straight by the 2000 squad.

Mountain West
2000 Champions
32-5 Overall, 13-1 MW

The 2000 team started a streak of five straight regular-season titles, posting a 13-1 record with the only blemish being a three-game setback at BYU. The Rams started the conference season with eight three-game sweeps before losing to the Cougars. The Rams then defeated New Mexico in four, swept Air Force, defeated San Diego State in five and swept UNLV to win the title. In the tournament, BYU defeated the Rams in the championship match in Moby, snapping a record 44-match home winning streak.

Conference Championship Teams

Mountain West
1999 Tournament Champions
30-3 Overall, 13-3 MW

The Rams began their dominance in the newly created Mountain West. After a 12-2 mark in the inaugural season of MW play, the Rams dominated the postseason tournament to lock up an NCAA tournament berth. Five players earned all-conference recognition, led by tournament MVP Catie Vagneur.

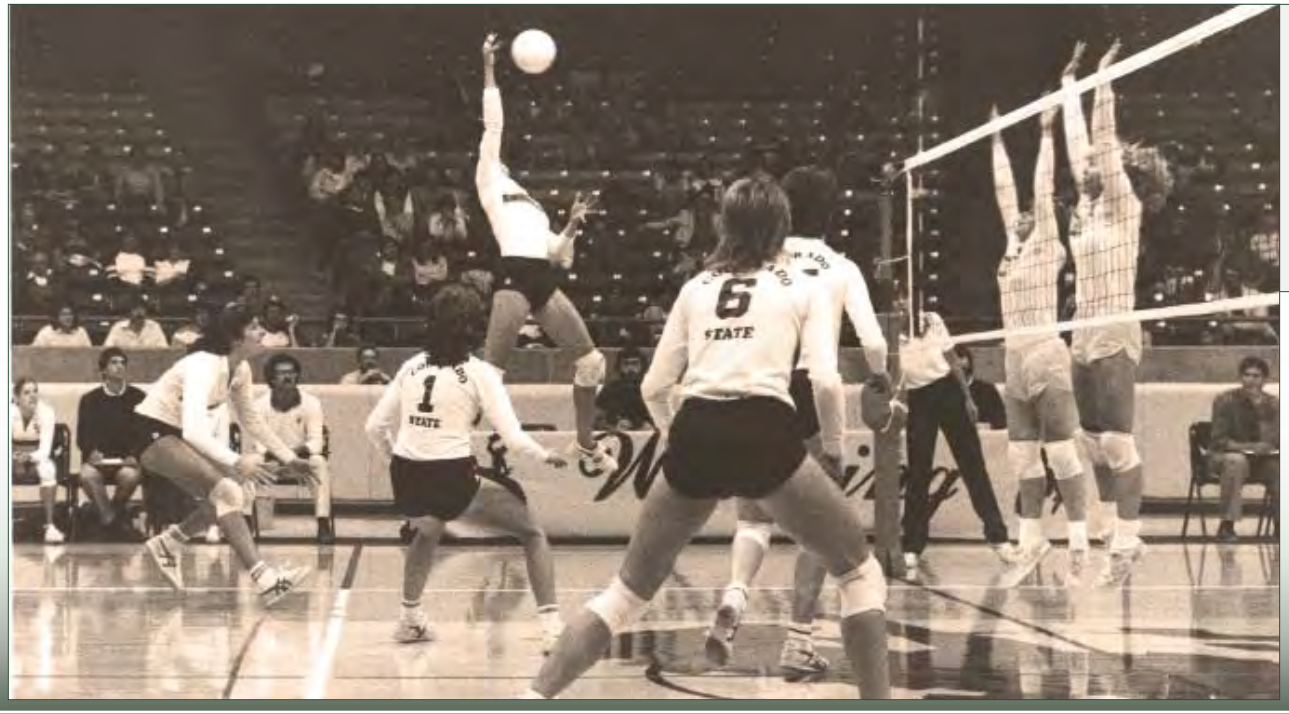
Western Athletic Conference
1998 Mountain Division Champions
24-8 Overall, 12-2 WAC

Colorado State won its first conference title in 13 seasons winning the Mountain Division of the WAC in its final year in that conference. The Rams posted a 12-2 record, dropping only decisions at Rice and at UNLV. CSU won its first seven matches before losing in Houston, then tallied four straight three-game sweeps and a five-game thriller against Wyoming before losing in four to the Rebels. The Rams won their final match to enter the WAC tournament as the No. 1 seed in the Mountain Division.

Conference Championship Teams

High Country Athletic Conference
1985 Champions
26-9 Overall, 11-1 HCAC

In 1985 the Rams posted an 11-1 record in High Country Athletic Conference play to win their second straight title. CSU won its first nine matches before losing at No. 18 BYU, and then swept Wyoming and Utah State for the second conference title in school history.



High Country Athletic Conference
1984 Champions
26-9 Overall, 12-0 HCAC

The very first conference volleyball title for Colorado State came in 1984 with an undefeated record in High Country Athletic Conference play. The Rams recorded five of their 12 wins with three-game sweeps and an impressive 4-0 record in five-game matches, including the last two at New Mexico State and New Mexico to remain unbeaten.

Rainie Rogers notched 42 of the Rams' record 181 attacks against Houston in the 1996 NCAA tournament.

Allison Peckham recorded 79 of the Rams' school-record 90 assists against rival Colorado during the 2000 NCAA tournament.

Bri Frech hit .538 with 18 kills in a 3-2 Rams' victory over San Diego State in 2003.

Angie Miller led CSU in blocks in a 1988 matchup against Colorado in which the Rams recorded a school-record 22 solo blocks.

Individual Single-Season Records

Cindy Cox holds the top two single-season assist totals, which she recorded in 1986 and 1987.

Dre Downs set a single-season record, averaging 0.55 aces per set in 2002.

Angie Knox set the Rams' single-season records for both kills and attacks in 1986.

Jaime Strauss is the last player to crack the single-season Top 10 in attacks, after recording 1,217 in 2007.

Media relations assistant Nic Hallisey, student-assistants Leah Sakdol, Keeley Brown and Danielle Minch and the rest of the media relations staff will be happy to serve you during the 2011 season.
- The Media relations office is located in the McGraw Athletic Center in Room 311 on the main campus of Colorado State University.
- For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please contact Nic Hallisey by phone at 970/231-4789 or by email at nic.hallisey@gmail.com.
- To assist you during the season/please take time to read the media information found on this page.

CSURAMS.com

- The official Web site for Colorado State athletics is CSURams.com/featuring the latest news/information/statistics and rosters for all of the Rams' 16 athletic programs.

Media Credentials

- Media credentials are distributed on a season or single-match basis. Requests should be made at least one week prior to an event. Credentials will be left prior to the match at media will call/which is located at the lower southwest entrance.

Photographer Credentials

- Photo credentials are issued only to accredited photographers. Passes must be displayed at all times. All photographers must remain outside the courtside tables at all times.

Parking

- Access to the parking lot immediately west of the McGraw Center will require an "A" permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management Web site: www.colostate.edu/depts/parking.

Video Highlights

- Contact Joe Vasos at 970/491-5946 regarding video highlights.

Weekly Releases

- Weekly news releases are available at least 48 hours prior to each match (except on days with back-to-back matches) on the school's official Web site, CSURams.com. News releases also will be emailed to media outlets upon request.

Colorado State Media Email List

- To receive email updates on the Rams, email media relations assistant Nic Hallisey at nic.hallisey@gmail.com with a message stating that you would like to receive the news releases via email.

Practice Guidelines

- All Colorado State volleyball practices are open to the public and to the media in their entirety unless otherwise noted. All interviews will take place following the conclusion of practice on the Moby Arena floor. Contact Nic Hallisey for the exact time and place for each day's practice.

Student-Athlete Interviews

- Interviews, either in person or via telephone, with members of Colorado State's volleyball coaching staff and student-athletes must be coordinated through media relations assistant Nic Hallisey.
- Home and/or cell phone numbers will not be provided to the media, by the coaches, student-athletes, or the athletic department. Media are asked not to request an individual's personal contact information, including email and cell number, but rather to contact Nic Hallisey.
- Student-athletes and coaches are available for interviews at the conclusion of daily practice sessions. Student-athlete interviews will not conflict with classes, meetings, medical treatment or practice times.
- Interviews are not permitted in the locker room or training room. Interviews will not be granted on match days until following the contest.
- Telephone interviews should be requested at least 24 hours in advance and coordinated through Nic Hallisey. All interviews will be processed on an availability basis involving the requested interviewee.

- Colorado State student-athletes will join Hilbert in the post-game area and then will be available by request through Nic Hallisey.
- No student-athlete or coach can appear on a live postgame television or radio interview without permission obtained prior to the match from Nic Hallisey. There are no exceptions.

Broadcast Rights and Restrictions

Colorado State, its opponent and the respective conference designate the broadcast rights for all games. CSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Championship Events Committee. Radio and television stations and Internet sites that have not purchased rights shall not carry any broadcast report from the arena on a live basis or any live description, footage of any game action while it is still in progress. No pregame and, or postgame live coverage shall be permitted for two hours before and one-half hour after the sporting event without the express permission of the university. Per NCAA guidelines, stations are limited to three minutes of highlights per news show. Television stations also are prohibited from selling, loaning or giving away footage to any individual or agency for use on any non-sports-news program produced or aired by the station. Matches that are broadcast by television networks may have additional restrictions. Also, per NCAA regulations, footage and photos of athletes with eligibility remaining may NOT be used to commercially promote any product, service or media outlet and may not be sold, loaned to other individuals, agencies for this purpose. Disrespect of credential privileges will result in withdrawal of all future credentials

Zak Gilbert enters his fifth season in Colorado State's athletic department. He officially joined the university on July 2, 2007.

The media relations staff, including two assistant directors and 15 student assistants, is responsible for the publicity of all 16 intercollegiate sports, including press releases, game notes, media guides and national honors campaigns. The office also manages content and maintenance of the department's official Web site CSURams.com, press credentials, press conferences, and press-box and press-row operations, while serving as a liaison between the local and national media and the athletic department.

Gilbert, 35, is only the second person to direct media relations over the last 30 years. In a 2007 restructuring of the office, he replaced senior associate athletic director Gary Ozzello, who gave up day-to-day media relations responsibilities in order to oversee several external relations staffs, including media relations. In addition to the overall staff operation, Gilbert works directly with the Rams' football, tennis and women's golf.

Gilbert returned to Fort Collins, his hometown, after six years in the Green Bay Packers public relations department, where among an assortment of duties he served as chief publicist for Brett Favre, the NFL's all-time leader in wins and nearly every career passing category.

Prior to his time in Titletown, Gilbert worked nearly four seasons (1998-2001) in the Colorado Rockies communications department. He also interned in the Super Bowl XXXII champion Denver Broncos PR department (1997) and wrote for the Boulder Daily Camera and Associated Press. And, during college, he worked every semester in the University of Colorado's athletic media relations office, where he served as chief undergraduate assistant for football during a four-year period that saw the Buffaloes win a Heisman Trophy, Butkus Award and Thorpe Award.

He earned a bachelor's degree in news-editorial journalism from the University of Colorado in December of 1997.

Born in Aurora, Colo., Gilbert graduated in 1994 from Fort Collins High School, where he lettered in football, served as the sports editor for his school paper, and delivered a commencement speech at Moby Arena.

He and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Fort Collins with their three children, Ashlynn, Braden and Caitlynn, a toddler the couple adopted in 2006. His younger sister, Lara, recently earned a degree in apparel and merchandising from Colorado State.

Danny Mattie

Asst. Director of Media Relations
Office: 970/491-5050
Cell: 970/217-3140
Email: d.mattie@colostate.edu

Contact For: Men's Basketball, Men's Golf and Softball.

Danny Mattie begins his sixth season as assistant director of media relations, his 10th overall in the Colorado State athletic department. He began work as a full-time employee on Aug. 26, 2006.

Mattie, 27, serves as the primary publicist for CSU's men's basketball, softball and men's golf programs, while offering statistical support at all Rams' home football games.

Before earning his promotion to assistant director, Mattie served as an undergraduate student assistant all four years during college at Colorado State. During his senior year, he served as the top contact for women's basketball, traveling with the team.

A native of Trinidad, Colo., Mattie worked as a media relations intern for USA Basketball in Colorado Springs, Colo., during the summer of 2005. Mattie also worked as the official statistician for the annual USA Basketball Youth Development Festival from 2003 to 2007.

Mattie graduated from Colorado State in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in technical journalism. He is single and lives in Fort Collins.

Danielle Marshall

Asst. Director of Media Relations
Office: 970/491-6494
Cell: 970/980-7353
Email: danielle.marshall@colostate.edu

Contact For: Women's Basketball, Men's and Women's Track & Field/Cross Country and Swimming & Diving

Danielle Marshall begins her third season as an assistant director of media relations in the Colorado State Universtiy department of athletics. She began work at Colorado State in June of 2009.

Marshall will head the publicity efforts and serve as a media liaison for Colorado State's womens basketball, swimming & diving and men's and women's cross country/track & field.

Starting out as an intern in the CSU marketing department in 2007, Marshall worked on the sidelines during football, volleyball, and men's and women's basketball helping out with the in-game promotions. In the spring of 2008, she also handled all of the in-game promotions for CSU softball. In April of 2008, Marshall was hired as a web content coordinator in the department of Web communications, a role in which she handled all maintenance and content for CSURams.com, the official site of CSU athletics.

Marshall graduated from Colorado State in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in technical journalism.

The Mountain West

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST: From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 13th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements over its first 12 years of existence, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999. In 2011-12, the Mountain West will be among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders three MW institutions (Air Force, newest member Boise State and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the West) and the Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State. The southwestern flavor of New Mexico complements the western heritage and culture of Fort Worth, Texas, home of TCU.

HISTORY: The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. Effective July 1, 2011, Boise State University became the newest member. California State University, Fresno and the University of Nevada, Reno will join the Mountain West effective July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i will become a football-only member of the Conference.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Craig Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002. Entering the 2011 season, the MW has four contracted bowl affiliations – the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas, San Diego Country Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl and Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

2010-11 IN REVIEW: From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams enjoyed an outstanding year in 2010-11. The league secured at least one at-large bid to the NCAA women's volleyball tournament for the 12th consecutive year, as New Mexico joined MW regular-season champion and automatic bid representative Colorado State in the postseason. The Rams finished the season with a No. 16 ranking in the AVCA Top 25 poll. Volleyball also set a league attendance record with over 137,000 fans coming to matches for a new league average of 1,000+ fans per match.

EXPOSURE: The Mountain West continues to receive unprecedented national television exposure through a combination of telecasts on The Mtn., CBS Sports Network and VERSUS. In 2010-11, 47 football, 88 men's basketball and 27 women's basketball Conference-controlled contests were broadcast nationally.

On August 26, 2004, CBS Sports Network (formerly CSTV and CBS C) and the Mountain West announced a visionary partnership that revolutionized the college sports landscape. The landmark agreement was the first NCAA Division I football and men's basketball conference-wide deal for CSTV and provided the network exclusive rights to all Conference events, including cable and satellite television coverage, national over-the-air and satellite radio, video-on-demand and online broadcast rights.

In the summer of 2006, the centerpiece of this historic relationship was realized with the launch of The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network, the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference. Nearly 32,000 hours of MW programming have aired on The Mtn. since the network's launch on Sept. 1, 2006, and nearly 300 MW events are shown live annually through a combination of telecasts on The Mtn., CBS Sports Network and VERSUS. CBS Sports Network is currently in 43 million homes, and available in 95 million nationwide. VERSUS is in 75 million households across the U.S.

ACADEMIC CONSORTIUM: From the outset, the MW's member institutions were committed to creating academic relationships, as well as athletic competition. To that end, the chief academic officers of each institution have explored academic exchange programs, library crossovers and shared research. In addition, the faculty athletics representatives routinely provide academic assistance and test-taking services for student-athletes visiting from fellow member institutions for competition.

OPPORTUNITY: The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 7,000 student-athletes each year. Over the past 12 years, 36 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 24 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Three student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars (Jessica Mellinger, Wyoming and Delavane Diaz and Brittany Morreale, Air Force).

ACHIEVEMENT: The MW has produced 711 All-America selections among its 19 sponsored sports in the last 12 years, including a league-record 83 All-America honorees in 2010-11. A total of 118 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The MW has sent at least 30 teams to NCAA postseason events each of the past 12 years. Mountain West teams have captured three NCAA team championships, with BYU claiming three national titles in women's cross country. Additionally, the MW has produced 27 NCAA individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have participated in 46 bowl games under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games. The MW has earned 55 postseason bids in men's basketball, including 29 NCAA Tournament appearances and two NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 55 postseason slots, including 30 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. Wyoming won the MW's first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women's volleyball, the MW has had 33 NCAA bids with eight Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women's soccer has earned 25 NCAA bids since 1999, with BYU advancing to the Sweet 16 in 2000 and the Elite Eight in 2003. MW men's golf has had at least four representatives in each of the last 12 NCAA Golf Regionals, while women's tennis has had at least two teams participate in NCAA Regionals 10 of the last 11 years.
